HAPPINESS IS 4-H

By Frank H. Sweet
Extension Agent

Summer 4-H Sewing Classes begin next Tuesday at the Extension Office and next Friday at Pamplin Elementary School. If you have not signed up and are interested in learning to sew, please call Miss Hudson (352-8244) and let her know.

4-H'ers should be looking ahead to Five County Fair exhibits in September. The new Fair catalogs should be out by the middle of July.

* * *

There will be a pork poster contest in conjunction with the Piedmont Junior Market Hog Show on August 9. Posters should be 22" x 14" and the theme is "Pork - Better Than Ever." Posters should be turned in at the Extension Office by July 24. All 4-Hers making posters will win ribbons. The idea is to make a poster showing something about the nutritious value of pork and pork products.

Joe Ford and Laurie McLean were named State Achievement record winners at State 4-H Congress in Blacksburg this week. Laurie will be going to National 4-H Congress in Chicago in November as the Virginia winner in the clothing area. Joe's record in Citizenship has earned him a trip to Camp Miniwanca in Michigan later this week.

Older 4-H'ers are always looking for summer jobs. As you know, summer employment can be hard to find. One pretty good idea is to raise some vegetables to sell. Bill Vaughan has set out some 400 tomato plants. These should produce a good crop through July and August. Bill has these near his home so he can irrigate them if necessary. With good management and care, these tomatoes should provide some good summer income. Many other 4-H'ers could follow this example with tomatoes, melons, etc.
